SUMMARY

I'm a multimedia creator and trainer who handles projects from start to finish. I write, sung and mix my own music, while also working as a cinematographer, editor, and designer. On top of traditional media, I work as an IAPD trainer and use AI tools to create commercial video ads and graphics, bridging the gap between classic production and new tech.

WORK EXPERIENCE

AI Creator Jan 2025 - Present

- Created sharp digital art, cinematic AI videos, and scroll-stopping ads from prompt to final render.

Freelance (Audio Engineer, Visual Artist) Jan 2019 - Present

- Handled everything from writing and rapping original tracks to mixing, mastering, and engineering the final sound in the studio.
- Worked behind the lens as a lead cinematographer and photographer, then jumped into post-production to handle the full video editing and grading process.
- Crafted the overall visual identity, graphics, and promotional layouts to bridge the gap between the audio and video elements of each project.

IAPD Trainer (ICJ ,Powered By Infosys Foundation) Jan 2026 - March 2026

- Trained 100+ students on how to speak confidently, present themselves well, and fix their everyday communication habits so they can actually get noticed at work.
